MARKET FACTS

About 80% of market participants lose money in markets, out of which 10% create their wealth in financial markets. Everyone in market enters with very small capital and big dreams which creates losing streak for investor because in short period of time everyone looks at it as big gain opportunities, Charts have always been exciting for everyone as it keeps moving 24X7 in markets. Newbie will see every candle in market as an opportunity but experts always react on certain price point and level and have patience to hold trade until they secure the level of profits which they want to achieve. Smart investors, they invest in mutual funds, hedge funds, bonds, term insurance, wealth management companies etc.

MARKET FACTS

Retail investors have capital issues and they are high in numbers but less in capital where the institutions take out your dumb money and become a smart money player in markets. There are very few investors traders who make money in this as big fish eat smaller ones.

Many people lose due to poor management and risk assessment due to which a lot of people win in shorter time but losses big in long term.

The results displayed on this website are a combination of real live results and hypothetical trading results. Hypothetical performance results have many inherent limitations. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those shown. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between hypothetical performance results and the actual results subsequently achieved by any particular trading program. One of the limitations of hypothetical performance results is that they are generally prepared with the benefit of hindsight. There are numerous other factors related to the markets in general or to the implementation of any specific trading program which cannot be fully accounted for in the preparation of hypothetical performance results and all of which can adversely affect actual trading results.
